Dalton Roberts, Columnist, CHATTANOOGA TIMES FREE PRESS

“With purity of style and understated fervor, Tim Bays absorbed the attention of all of the diverse audience. Die-hard romantics, cynics and music lovers beware - this man will capture your heart.”

Valerie deVries, DAILY NEWS-CHIEF, Winterhavem FL

“He consistently wowed (Kerrville Folk Festival) audiences and rattled off one great song after another...his bedside manner made him a crowd favorite.”

Allen Rowoth, FOLK DIGEST #509, Liverpool, NY

“As a musician he is a versatile six string guitarist with blues, jazz and country influences. As a vocalist he is impressive and capable of many things - he finished one song in Al Jarreau fashion and a few songs later might have been Arlo Guthrie. And his lyrics leave you with that ‘Gosh I wish I had put it that way’ feeling.”

Jim Sughrue, COLUMBIA NITE LIFE, Columbia, SC

“Bays turned in an inspired, professional performance, treating the audience to songs which ranged from the deeply serious to the outrageously absurd. Reminiscent at times of John Prine, Steve Goodman and Gamble Rogers...Bays is a storyteller with truths that come from within. What makes him special is the vivid descriptions of the characters and settings in his stories and songs. (Bays) is an intelligent, complex person who cares about his audience and his art.”

Nelson Ross, THE RED & BLACK, University of Georgia, Athens, GA

“Tim Bays is not just any folksinger. He has a strong, rich voice and plays the guitar as if he’s played forever. With his performance, the “Tuesday Happenings” are elevated to new heights...he enraptured the crowd.”

Pete Phillips, THE TECHNIQUE, Georgia Tech, Atlanta, GA

“I LOVE the Tim Bays CD, ‘Everyday Magic.’ Excellent, and if you get a chance to see Tim in person, he’s absolutely AWESOME.”
